A recently converted single storey stone charming cottage set in the beautiful Edale valley in the heart of the Peak District National Park, and is close to the owner's property. The accommodation is excellent and sleeps 2 to 4 adults.

Approach:

Parking - adjacent, off-road spacious parking. However, the car-park contains loose stones, and thus is not suitable for an independent wheelchair user.

The approach to the cottage is via a ramp; however, the external door to the cottage is not wide enough for an independent wheelchair user.

Accommodation:

Internally, the accommodation is accessible.

- Bedroom 1 - double bed, cot if needed
- Bedroom 2 - twin beds
- Kitchen - microwave, washing machine, electric hob & oven, high-chair if needed
- Sitting room - TV, video, DVD player, woodburning stove
- All rooms have raised wall sockets
- Bathroom - level access shower. Shower chair provided on request. Handrails are not provided.
- Heating - oil fired central heating + wood burner
- Garden - with furniture & barbeque, however, it is approached by pathways of loose stones and thus unsuitable for an independent wheelchair user.
- Parking - adjacent, off-road spacious parking

Please contact owners to for further information with regards to accessibility.
