A combination of B&B and self-catering may be preferred by groups with a range of disabilities. The Orangery and Conservatory are ideal for large events.

Cressbrook Hall is situated in Cressbrook Village, which is located four miles north west of Bakewell on the road from Monsal Head to Litton. Cressbrook Hall sits peacefully in an area of outstanding beauty with spectacular views of the surrounding countryside and the River Wye. This beautiful area gives access to riverside walks, and is also in easy reach of Bakewell, Tideswell, Buxton and the Hope Valley.

The superior accommodation, in idyllic surroundings has been thoughtfully prepared with regards to accessibility. There are seven limestone cottages situated within the grounds of Cressbrook Hall. Nearest train station is Buxton or Chesterfield.

Note: It is advised that you contact Mrs Hull-Bailey to check suitability of accommodation chosen and discuss requirements.

Approach:

Cressbrook Hall is approached via a steep hill in the village of Cressbrook. A fenced gatehouse stands guard to the private long drive leading to the Hall. The driveway is limestone gravel, and thus not suitable for wheelchair users. Wheelchair users and those with mobility difficulties will need transport to access the surrounding beautiful areas. At reception you will be met by a guide/member of staff who will provide directions to the cottages.

Accommodation:

All of the cottages are accessible for ambulant people. All of the showers unless otherwise stated have a small step into the unit.

Hidesaway Excellent Ground Floor Accommodation suitable for wheelchair users

Note: The approach is via a ramp from the parking area, however, it is not quite level to the road/parking area – a slight rise. A weather mat is also at the entrance, which presents a barrier for wheelchair users. Please request the removal of the weather mat. The ramp leads to the main entrance
